Your order can be automatically canceled in 2 cases:

1. In case you didn't make your bank deposit within 2 working days from the date of your order, or in case you didn't send us the deposit credentials in order to inform our accounting department about your payment. In this case you need to make a new order of the services you wish to purchase. See step by step the procedure of paying with bank deposit at Papaki

2. In case you made a deposit of the wrong amount and didn't complete the payment of the right amount for your order, within 2 working days from the initial date of your order. View step by step the procedure you need to follow, in case you made a wrong bank deposit for your order.
